3. TEACHING READING IN EFL

4. UNDERSTANDING WRITING

5. TEACHING WRITING IN EFL

5.- METODOLOGÍA DOCENTE

The methodology is based in three main points:

a.- Concept of “writing and reading”, teaching and learning.

b.- Working with integrated skills.

c.- Communicative lessons. Assessment, self-assessment (rubrics and individual interview)) and class-assesment.

In this subject we have selected active teaching methodologies to be implemented taking into account the following factors: the level of the cognitive objectives, the capacity of the method to facilitate the autonomy and continuity learning of the students, self-control learning by the students, number of students, time, lessons and assessment. Then, we are going to follow the next methodologies and techniques:

1.- Task-based language teaching (TBLT), also known as task-based instruction (TBI), focuses on the use of authentic language and on asking students to do meaningful tasks using the target language.

Pre-task

The teacher introduces the topic and gives the students clear instructions on what they will have to do at the task stage and might help the students to recall some language that may be useful for the task.

Planning

Students prepare a short oral or written report to tell the class what happened during their task.

Report

Students then report back to the class orally or read the written report.

Analysis

The teacher then highlights relevant parts from the text of the recording for the students to analyse. They may ask students to notice interesting features within this text. The teacher can also highlight the language that the students used during the report phase for analysis.

Practice

Finally, the teacher selects language areas to practise based upon the needs of the students and what emerged from the task and report phases.

2.- Cooperative learning is a teaching method where students of mixed levels of ability are arranged into groups and rewarded according to the group's success, rather than the success of an individual member.

Five elements define cooperative learning:

Face-to-Face Interaction

Students are promoting each others' learning through face-to-face activities where they discuss and explain assignment topics with each other.

Positive Interdependence

Students have the sense that they're 'in this together,' feeling that each member's individual effort will not only help him but the whole group. The grade of each student is dependent upon the effort of other group members.

Individual Accountability

Each student is accountable for their own contribution to the group. Clearly described goals ensure that each student knows what she is responsible for and what the group is responsible for.

Group Processing

Students are given a means for analyzing their group for how well the group has learned and whether or not collaborative skills are being used.

Collaborative Skills

Students learn not only the subject matter but interpersonal skills and how to work in teams. Students are taught skills of communication, leadership, and conflict management during the early stages of cooperative learning sessions.

3.- Thinking routines.

These routines are simple structures, for example a set of questions or a short sequence of steps, that can be used across various grade levels and content. What makes them routines, versus merely strategies, is that they get used over and over again in the classroom so that they become part of the fabric of classroom' culture. The routines become the ways in which students go about the process of learning.

Is goal oriented in that it targets specific types of thinking.

Gets used over and over again in the classroom.

Consists of only a few steps.

Is easy to learn and teach.

Is easy to support when students are engaged in the routine.

Can be used across a variety of context.

Can be used by the group or by the individual.

Moreover, there will be a compulsory book to read which will be part of the assessment. In the final exam there will be one or two questions about the plot and and / or the vocabulary and expressions seen in the book.

6.- EVALUACIÓN

6.1. Criterios de Evaluación

Con el objetivo de constatar la adquisición de las competencias descritas, se emplean técnicas de evaluación variadas. Para obtener la nota final aprobada, es necesario alcanzar al menos el 50% de la puntuación máxima en cada una de ellas.

Se tendrá en cuenta la asistencia regular del estudiante (no menos del 75%) para la calificación, tanto en primera como en 2ª convocatoria, de las técnicas de evaluación que requieran presencialidad.

Es decir, aquellas técnicas que evalúan competencias como destrezas de trabajo en equipo, estrategias de comunicación interpersonal y oral, en otras, requieren la participación activa del estudiante en el desarrollo de las clases. Además, por su propio carácter (trabajos y casos prácticos grupales, exposiciones, debates...) no pueden ser realizadas en otro momento ni sustituidas por otras.

El profesor, en el desarrollo de su docencia, podrá incluir requisitos de evaluación para las diferentes técnicas que se detallarán en las plantillas o rúbricas de evaluación pertinentes.

CRITERIOS COMUNES DE CORRECCIÓN

Penalización del plagio o intentos de engaño en las técnicas de evaluación, suponiendo la pérdida de la convocatoria. El docente estimará si precisa aplicar técnicas complementarias en caso de detectarlo.

Realización y entrega en fecha y forma establecida las actividades y trabajos encomendados.

Para la cita y referencia de fuentes de información de los trabajos académicos, el alumnado debe seguir las recomendaciones de las normas APA 7º Ed.

Ortografía en los trabajos académicos y en las pruebas escritas: Entendemos que el alumnado universitario tiene asumidas las capacidades lingüísticas en relación a la expresión oral y escrita. Por tanto, es primordial y obligatorio la corrección ortográfica (ortografía, acentuación y puntuación), gramatical y léxica en los trabajos y exámenes realizados como condición imprescindible para superar la asignatura.

En los criterios de evaluación, se atenderán las indicaciones que el SQUAE haga llegar al profesorado del alumnado con Necesidad Específica de Apoyo Educativo

The linguistic written level is very important, the communicative Competence will be assessed through the different evaluation techniques: the exam, the project and the activities.

- One of the language skills that is assessed in this course is accuracy and control - what can also be described as "correctness".

Although some errors may not affect the marks from the assessment techniques significantly, systematic repetition of basic errors will, and may even lead to a fail mark ("suspense").

It is strongly recommended that you study the following list and make sure you do not make these mistakes repeatedly:

1.- Using modal verbs with a full infinitive, e.g. *You should to tell her the truth.

2.- Sentences without a subject (noun or pronoun), e.g. (You) *Shouldn't listen to her.

- 3.- Wrong use of possessives pronouns and determiners. E.g. *She should think about your own future.
- 4.- Wrong use of personal pronouns: him / her / he / she. E.g. *Give it to she.
- 5.- Wrong concordance subject-verb, especially 3rd person singular Present without –s.
- 6.- Wrong use of auxiliaries. E.g. *She don't can speak French.
- 7.- Adjectives after (not before) nouns, e.g. *A house big.
- 8.- Writing *"I'm agree" instead of "I agree".

ALUMNOS DE SEGUNDAS Y SUCESIVAS MATRÍCULAS

Para el alumnado de segundas y sucesivas matrículas se tendrán en cuenta los criterios generales de evaluación.

CRITERIOS PARA 2ª CONVOCATORIA

Students will take into account general and common evaluation criteria, applied in others subjects as well.

- Plagiarism in any course task and the attempts to cheat in the final exam will entail a fail mark in the current call.
- To pass every type of evaluation technique, a minimum of 5 out of 10 must be obtained.
- They have to do a final exam again
- The marks from the assessment techniques already passed in the 1st call will be kept for the second call, but not for subsequent calls.

ALUMNOS DE SEGUNDAS Y SUCESIVAS MATRÍCULAS

Students from previous years: attendance will not be required and they will be tutored through online or/and face-to-face tutorials. The students will have to contact with the teacher.

The students who have not passed the subject in second call and in subsequent calls-will have to take a final exam in the same date as their classmates. This written test will account for the 60% of the final mark. Likewise, they will have to hand in a Project meeting the guidelines given by the teacher on the date of the official exam and explain it orally.

The project will account for another 40% too.

They will have to comply with the rest of the aspects (40% assigned to the project and the remaining 60% to the examination).

The pass mark for each assessment technique will be 5 out of 10, that is 2.5 out of 5. Therefore students will have to get at least a 50%, so that the partial mark obtained in every assessment technique can be added to their final mark.

6.2. Técnicas de Evaluación
